Short title

44. This Act is called the Adult Basic Education and Training Act, 2000.

MEMORANDUM ON THE OBJECTS OF THE ADULT BASIC EDUCATION AND TRAINING BILL, 2000

1. INTRODUCTION

The Adult Basic Education and Training Bill seeks to regulate adult basic education and training centres as institutions distinct from institutions such as schools and further education and training institutions. Its main focus is to ensure the viability of adult learning centres.

2. BACKGROUND AND SUBSTANCE OF BILL

2.1 The Bill gives effect to the provisions of section 29(1)(a) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), which provides that every person has the right to basic education, which includes adult basic education.

2.2 The need to legislate adult learning centres is based on an intensive process of research and consultations due to the enormous number of adult people who do not have basic education. The Bill provides for the establishment of public adult learning centres and for the registration of private adult learning centres. The Bill is the result of policies initiated by the Minister, including the Interim Guidelines for Adult Basic Education and Training (ABET) Provisioning, 1995; The Adult Basic Education and Training Policy, 1997; and the Multi-Year Implementation Plan for Adult Basic Education and Training, 1997.

2.3 These policies and plans address the following important matters:

- Proposals for a new ABET system.
- Proposals for a new ABET qualification within the NQF, a new curriculum, a new quality assurance framework and mechanism and the monitoring and evaluation of the adult education and training system.
- Proposals for a new approach to adult basic education and training funding.
- Proposals for a new governance framework for the adult basic education and training system.

2.4 The Bill places an obligation on the heads of provincial departments of education to provide facilities for the use of a public centre to perform its functions. If no facilities are available, the Head of Department, in terms of section 20(1)(k) of the South African Schools Act, 1996 (Act No. 84 of 1996), should request the governing body of a public school to allow the reasonable use of the facilities of the school by the public centre.

2.5 In cases where the public centre uses school facilities to perform its functions, a representative of the school governing body and a member of the staff in question may be co-opted by the governing body of the public centre, but without voting rights.

3. BODIES CONSULTED

- 3.1 Gauteng Education and Training Council
- 3.2 Adult Educators and Training Association of South Africa — KwaZulu-Natal

4. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS FOR STATE

The public adult basic education and training is to be funded from money appropriated for this purpose by the provincial legislatures.

5. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

The State Law Advisers and the Department are of the opinion that the Bill must be dealt with in accordance with the procedure prescribed by section 76(1) or (2) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), since it falls within a functional area listed in Schedule 4 to the Constitution, namely “Education at all levels, excluding tertiary education.”
